

for Micael, you are my own brother

you are my own brother

my AIDS stricken angel

a heartbreak
too much to bear

2.

I've come to find
I've always loved you
and our love flow thick through shared veins

could I promise you a rose garden?
or no,
a field of daisies and sunflowers.

3.

you cannot help but be beautiful and lovely
in summer hats
still dancing
under umbrellas in the rain.

- with much love and affections,
Jhon Baker
